

EROTIC ROMANCE ‘THE AUCTION’ HEADLINES NEW PULP PAPERBACK-INSPIRED SERIES FROM USA TODAY BESTSELLER TIFFANY REISZ

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, FEBRUARY 24, 2021— Kentucky native Tiffany Reisz’s romance catalog is getting a vintage makeover beginning this March. 8th Circle Press is debuting the “Original Sinners Pulp Library,” a spin-off of her million-plus selling Original Sinners series.

Each of the 4 titles in the Original Sinners Pulp Library can be read as a standalone, which sets this spin-off apart from Reisz’s 9-book main series (published by Harlequin and 8th Circle Press). The Original Sinners series follows the exploits of Nora Sutherland, an erotica writer who moonlights as “Mistress Nora,” a dominatrix.

The painted covers for the new series were designed by Reisz’s husband, New York Times bestselling author Andrew Shaffer. The covers are modeled after pulp mystery and romance paperbacks from the mid-20th century.

“Since this is the first time the books will be available in print, Tiffany wanted to do something a little different to make the paperbacks special,” Shaffer says. “They’re throwbacks to a time when books like this would be sold wrapped in brown paper.”

The Auction is being offered for sale for the first time. The other three titles—The Mistress Files, The Last Good Knight, and Immersed In Pleasure/Submit To Desire—were originally issued as ebooks by Harlequin, and are now making their print debuts with 8th Circle Press as mass-market paperbacks. The first book releases March 15, 2021, with additional titles following every five weeks.

Tiffany Reisz is the USA Today bestselling author of the Original Sinners series, including the RT Book Reviews Best Erotic Romance winner The Siren and the Romance Writers of America RITA®-winning The Saint. She lives in Louisville, Kentucky.
